

UBC TALKS webinar

Mapping and monitoring PFAS in cities

Tuesday 26 March 2024

09.30–11.00 CET / 10.30–12.00 EET

Event page » | Registration »

Mapping risks of PFAS contamination in urban areas and cooperating with the national and regional level on PFAS monitoring – welcome to the UBC TALKS about this on 26 March!

09.30–09.35 CET	Welcome to the webinar
09.35–09.50	PFAS: why should the cities address it Piia Leskinen, Turku University of Applied Sciences
09.50–10.05	EMPEREST solutions for cities, water utilities and international community Lotta Lehti, UBC Sustainable Cities Commission
10.05–10.25	PFAS risk assessment strategy for municipalities with questions from the audience Kamila Gruškeviča, Riga Technical University
10.25–10.45	PFAS regional monitoring in the Baltic Sea region with questions from the audience Markus Raudkivi, HELCOM – Baltic Marine Environment Protection Commission
10.45–10.55	PFAS in the action plan of the EU Strategy for the Baltic Sea Region Louise Floman, EUSBSR PA Hazards
10.55–11.00	Closing words and next steps